

SURVIVAL SKILLS

For Community Frontline Workers and Concerned Citizens: Personal Safety/Crime Prevention

Do you know how to defuse a hostile situation?

Do you know local hate groups and how they work?

Do you know your rights or the laws that protect us?

Being out in the community doing special events, fairs or informational booths put workers in volatile situations.

Do you know what to do?

The Lexington Police Department, Lexington Public Library and the YMCA of Central Kentucky are holding a free workshop to help you give you some tips:

July 7, 2010
2:00pm-4:00pm
Lexington Public Library/Central Library
140 East Main Street
Central Library Theater, 1st floor

The workshop will go over things to look for and ways to avoid dangerous situations. This workshop is free and open to the public.

If you are interested in attending this workshop, please call Wendi Keene at 859-226-0393 to leave your name and number. Registration deadline is June 30. Advance registration is required to provide correct number of materials and room set up.
